Views in the West.

The following is an extract of a letter from Dr. Wm. Henry Hening of this city, now Regimental Surgeon to the Detachment of troops commanded by Col. Miller, of the 5th reg't, to his father, W. W. Hening, Esq. of this city—which contains some interesting information relative to the Western Interoceanic U. S.—the other observations are judicious—and we take much pleasure in submitting them to our readers. The letter, too, encloses the Speech of a chief of the Winnebago tribe of Indians; marked with that peculiar vein of thought and expression, which distinguishes the long talk of the Indians.
Campan Fox River, Green Bay, August 29th, 1816.

"In a letter which I addressed you previous to my leaving Mackinaw, you were informed of the route which I probably would pursue, in returning to Virginia. These anticipations seem thus far realized. In conformity to my expectations, early in July, the detachment of Riflemen stationed at Mackinaw, received orders to retrace to Green Bay, and there establish a Fort with all convenient expedition; to look down all expected opposition, from the Indians residing in this country. We sailed from Mackinaw on the 26th of July last, with the schooners Washington, Wayne, Mink and ship Amelia—having on board Col. Miller, of the 3d Regt. Col. Chambers, of the Rifle, Major Gratiot, of the Engineers, a detachment of Artillery under Captain Pierce, and four companies of the 3d Infantry, amounting in the whole to 500 men. We entered the mouth of the River on the 7th of August—and, contrary to expectations, received from the French inhabitants and Indians, a very friendly and flattering reception. Whether these professions were sincere, or proceeded from their fears, time will determine. After looking for some days for a proper site, the Engineers have finally fixed on the position, where the old French Fort (L. Bay) formerly stood. It will be a stockade with strong pickets a bastion at each angle, with a piece of Artillery on each, amply sufficient to beat off any Indian force that can be brought against it. The garrison will consist of two companies of Riflemen and two companies of Infantry, all under the command of Col. Chambers. Some account of this very delightful country may prove not very uninteresting. When the French first established themselves here, they found the contrast between it and Mackinaw very striking—for, on leaving the latter place, vegetation was scarcely apparent; whereas, on arriving at the Bay, they found the woods and fields clothed in the most luxuriant verdure. At that time, the country was inhabited by two tribes of Indians, the Winnebagoes, (called by the French "Pouons," or stinking) and the Manomenies, (called "Faulsavains," for eaters of wild rice). The Winnebagoes, proved most troublesome, the French and Manomenies turned their arms against them, and having killed a number, drove them to the Winnebago Lake and the Rock River, where they have ever since resided. The soil on both sides of the river, is very fine, and the fine wheat fields and gardens give it every appearance of a rich and fertile country. The River abounds with fish, particularly a species of sturgeon which exceeds that of James River, in the richness and delicacy of its flavour, and in the spring and fall, myriads of water fowl, attracted by the wild rice, darken the air. This plant springs up in water six or seven feet deep, so thick as in many places to impede the progress of boats and canoes. The Indians call it Ma no men, and living almost entirely on it—they have received from the French the appellation of Faulsavains, or Wild Rice Eaters. When the heads become ripe, they pass through it in their canoes, and bending them over, strike them with small sticks, and in a very short time, nearly fill their canoes with the grain. This, when cleaned, becomes an excellent article of diet, scarcely inferior to the rice of the south. Every thing at present bears a peaceable aspect, but how long this state of things will continue, is very uncertain. Without a great deal of circumspection on the part of the Indian Department, and a chain of posts properly garrisoned, I have little hesitation in saying, that our frontiers once again, will witness the horrors of savage warfare. The Winnebagoes, it is manifest, are decidedly opposed to our making any establishment in this country, as are also a part of the Faulsavains. Nothing, I believe, but the strong force they have to combat keeps them quiet. The storm is murmuring at a distance, which I am fearful will, sooner or later burst upon us with all the accumulated horror of savage vengeance. To give you an idea of the present feelings of the Indians, I enclose a speech of Nat-aw-pin-daw-quas, or the Smoker, a Winnebago Chief, delivered before Colonel Boyer, the Indian Agent.

SPEECH

Of Natawpin daw quas, or Smoker, a Winnebago Chief, delivered at Green Bay, on the 23d August, before Col. Boyer, the Indian Agent.
Father—You fancy, Father, that I am of a nation, who are in the habit of telling lies, because other tribes give us that character; but all I am going to say now shall be the truth.

Father—It is true that we have committed faults, but the White people are the cause of it. We Red Skins believe all that you say, and if your intentions are to attack us, we are not alone.

Father—When at Mackinaw, I there told you the general thought of the Indians, and that they were in dread of you. We were afraid that your intention in coming here to build forts, was with a view to do us harm.

Father—On your arrival here, we were much troubled, because we were apprehensive you had come to injure the Red Skins, but we beg that you may take us under your wings.

Father—You know that the Master of Life governs us all. It is him who placed us on the earth and is our Master. Should your intentions be to destroy us, I doubt if you could succeed, because he protects us as well as you.

Father—The words that are issuing from my mouth are the words of truth. I am always seeking good. When at Mackinaw, we told the opinions of the Red Skins. There are many words, my Father, that are repeated with a false meaning. I beg you will not listen to those words. I am desirous that the Children of the same great Father should always be friends. Be charitable, and listen to the words I am telling you. We hope that our Father will conform to the promises he has made us.

Father—Believe not that if you should have any troubles with the Red Coats, that any of us will mix in them. We first saw the French; they were our first fathers; Next to them, came the Red Coats. Now, our determination is not to listen; and should you have any shock among you, we shall remain neutral.

Father—I tell you no lies. All the other nations think as we do, and it is my reason for repeating it now. You have doubts respecting your children the Red Skins. Why have you brought big guns along with you? Certainly it must have been with a view of using them against us. We hope that you will have no use for them, but we do not like to see them in the country.

Father—All that I am telling you is the truth. The French inhabitants residing in this country, who are acquainted with us, and who assist us in our wants, were you to drive them away from the lands they occupy, as well as those at the Prairie du Chein, you would indeed reduce us to charity. We are desirous that our father would send these words to our great Father, the President, and we should be happy in seen hearing from him.

Father—Do not believe that I tell you any false words. When the French Agent for Indian affairs resided among us, we were comparatively happy. He treated us with civility, and clothed us. If I tell lies, the French Inhabitants who are present can contradict me.

Father—I conceive myself an object of pity, as are also the young men who accompany us. You American Agents have always cheated us. I will not believe that you, Col. Boyer, will do the same. The English have also cheated us and led us wrong. We are not as other tribes, in the habit of incommencing our Father at every moment. All that you have promised our Chiefs I hope you will perform, in order that they may inform their young men of the real character of their Father.

Father—The Master of Life is above us, and who is our Master? You see me almost naked, and because I am not as well dressed as you are, you no doubt fancy me an object of pity. It is him who has willed it so. He has put something in your head, to give you more ideas and intelligence than we possess. But we wish to set off, and see what our Father will do for us, that we may show it to the other nations as we pass through them. I hope that we are not here for the purpose of telling each other lies. You, my Father, can you, like us, bore your ears, and suspend bobs to them? Can you put bands of silver on your arms or besaub your faces as we do? No, you cannot; because the master of Life would punish you were you to do it. You see, every day nations painted in different colors; he has ordered it so, to show the Whites that we are objects of charity, and that they are to assist us.

Father—You see that I tell no lies. It is true that I am a fool. Our fathers received Counsel from the French, then from the English, and finally, from you Americans. We have abandoned the Red Coats, because they cheated us, and our eyes are now opened. We are to reside among you. It is true that they (the Red Coats) gave us fine guns and good; but we do not like their guns as well as your rifles. We hope that our Father will supply us soon, and, as you have promised, you will cause our hoes and hatchets to be mended, that our wives may cultivate their fields without difficulty.

Father—You see me now speaking, and were I to continue for the whole day, or as it frequently happens in large councils, for three or four, and would still hear but the truth. Your arms, rifles, please us. They shoot well, and with them we should be certain of making good hunts. If our Father would furnish us with some of them, we should be able to obtain an easy subsistence for our wives and children, and a sufficiency of skins to exchange with the traders for goods, and occasionally bringing us Father a piece of fresh meat.

Father—There are trib's of Indians who left this yesterday; you opened your breast, barrels and gave them milk, whiskey. They had not gone before they drank the whole. I am fearful that those people, after having drunk their father's milk in that way, may carry bad words to their villages. It is true our father promised us some, and if we get it, will carry it to our villages, show it to our young men and old men, that they may have a taste of it, and the same time hear the words of the Father. Under our French father, we lived well; afterwards the English held us as profusely as first, in order to make us foolish. But for the two or three years past, they do not give us one third what they are indebted to us. What you have told us proves true, and we hope you will not treat us as the English have done.

London Aug. 19.

Extract of a letter from Fort St. Mary's near Cadiz, dated July 20.

"The troops forming the new expedition destined to act against the insurgent provinces of America, are now already, Nothing more is wanting, or them to sail than money, and ships embark in them. They are to be commanded by Gen. O'Donnel (Count Ausbal). The whole armament consists of 10 battalions of 800 or a 1000 men each, viz: one battalion of light troops; four of the line, called expeditionary troops; one belonging to the Asturias; another of the King's regiment; another of the regiment De Principe; another of Syria, and one battalion of light troops belonging to the Canaries. Besides, there, 600 artillery men are to embark with a corresponding number of sappers and pioneers, and from forty to fifty pieces of cannon. Two thousand mounted cavalry are also to go out, and some skeleton regiments are to be sent up on arriving in America. It is evident from the exertions the Spanish Government is now making that every thing is to be risked on this last formidable attempt, in all probability bound against Mexico, that is if the expedition sails.

St. Louis Aug. 31.

Col. David Musie, & Lieut. Parker, who were sent by the executive of this territory to notify the inhabitants of Ouchata, little Missouri, to remove from the Indian lands, agreeably to the President's proclamation returned a few days ago, after a fatiguing tour of 12 or 1500 miles. These gentlemen, represent the inhabitants of Ouchata a most respectable and orderly people, well disposed towards the government, and willing to abandon the lands they have cultivated for years, if their respectful petition to government should afford them no lenity. Subsequent information, derived from gentlemen who have been at the Springs confirm the opinion generally prevailing in the country that no Indian nations claim the lands in question. A few families of the Arkansas Quapaws annually visit Ouchata to hunt but have never set up claim to the soil. Wretched indeed would be the fate of the numerous invalids who sort to the springs, if the farmers are driven off their lands.

ALEXANDRIA.

TUESDAY, October 8.

The editorial remarks in the Herald of yesterday morning, merit and receive the hearty contempt of the Editor of this Gazette, as all publications emanating from the same source have and will continue to do.

The following we copy from the Newburyport Herald of Tuesday last: "A letter from Eastport states that an English fleet had just arrived there consisting of 150 gun ships, 238 gun frigates, 1 gun brig, & a sloop of war, that American property of every description is seized, and that the people are talking of nothing but war."

Eastport it will be remembered was captured by the British during the war. It remains still in their possession, agreeably to the provision of the Treaty of Peace. It is at present, a British port, and, very probably, is now visited by an English squadron. But the statement that American property of every description is seized, and that the people are talking of nothing but war, is doubtless an unfounded and idle rumor.

The Eastport News, as related by the Newburyport editor, made some noise here yesterday. The plain truth, according to our information from a gentleman from the spot is this:

In consequence of the extent to which smuggling had been carried on at Eastport the Collector of St. John sent his deputies down to seize a quantity of tobacco, pork, and other contraband articles at that place, which was done, but it excited no apprehension or talk of war.

The squadron spoken of, has been lying some time at St. John, and went to Eastport to try a Captain of a British sloop of war by a court martial for having some time since, thrown his guns overboard while his vessel was on the coast.

A letter from Liverpool of the 23d of August, states that the quantity of Cotton brought into that port from the 1st of January last amounted to 225,500 bags; that the amount sold was 196,000; that the stock on hand on the first day of the year was 60,000; and that 90,000 remained in market at the date of the letter.

A man has lately been sentenced to 6 months imprisonment in the State's Prison, N. York, for stealing newspapers placed under the door of a subscriber to one of the Gazettes of that city. Let the light-fingered gentry in this city look to it.

INDIAN CESSIONS.

It gives great pleasure to see the success which the government of the U. S. meets with, in their negotiations with the Indian Tribes for cession of land.

A treaty is just formed at St. Louis, according to which the Ottawas, Chippewas, and Pottowatomies have relinquished their claim to all the land included within the cessions heretofore made by the Saksies and Foxes which lies south of a due west line from the southern extremity of Michigan to the Mississippi; they have also ceded between one and two millions of acres, adjoining this relinquished tract, and extending to Lake Michigan. Steps may therefore now be taken, for surveying the military lands in the Illinois Territory; and for rendering the communication between the Lake Michigan and Illinois river at all times navigable. Such, at least, is the suggestion of the Missouri Gazette.

The spirit of acquisition is not confined to the North-West—it is moving in the South. We are happy also to learn, that on the 11th ult. the Grand Council met at the Chickasaw old Council House. The Cherokees, the Choctaws, and Chickasaws were present, the Creeks expected. Gen. Jackson attended as a Commissioner on the part of the U. States. A council had been held by the Indians themselves, at which it was admitted that the Creek title to the famous land ceded to the U. States by the Creeks was the best—but the Cherokees still played off: Gen. Jackson was determined to get it, if he could upon honorable principles.

Norfolk paper.

A hoax.—On Monday last, a man arrived in this city in the Northern stage, who passed himself off by the name of Vanhorn, and as the friend of Mr. Venette, "recently from France." Vanhorn advertised the "Grand Exhibition" of an Air Balloon, to rise on Thursday last at two o'clock, near the capitol; and Venette was to remain "suspended 20 feet in the airy regions." Poor Venette was in fact, had lost his property twice by fire, and had recourse to this expedient for the support of his "numerous family."

Vanhorn played his part to perfection.—With the greatest sang froid he observed "that he was sorry to undertake this business, that he had his own transactions to attend to, that nothing could induce him to attend to it, but a grateful wish to assist Mr. Venette, who had once rendered him a service in Philadelphia; that Venette was engaged about the balloons, and could not get in the distribution of the tickets; and that all he should do to the affair, was to deliver the tickets into the hands of certain gentlemen, who would receive the money, and return it, if the exhibition should fail." What next? Vanhorn takes these tickets himself; carries them around, and sells a considerable number for fifty cents a piece; and on Wednesday night take a seat in the Northern Mail Stage, ostensibly for "the Oaks," only; saying that he should return next day; draws out his baggage clandestinely in the night from his apartment; bids the tavern-keeper, the porter, and the public, and vanishes. No longer heard of him since! On Thursday, two o'clock, a considerable crowd assembled on the capitol square; but, no Venette, no Vanhorn, no balloon, no apparatus, greets their sight; and they find it all a hoax! only a villainous edition of the Philadelphia hoax.

This Monsieur Vanhorn, this prince of pickpockets, has a northern aspect, dark complexion, eyes and hair, about 25 years of age, and about five feet ten inches in height. His dress black; and demeanor smooth and genteel. He will be fortunate if he yet escapes being "suspended SIX feet in the airy regions."

Executive appointments.

We understand, that the council of state have appointed John Wood to survey the water-courses of this state from the James to the Potomac River, including the James River, below the great fall road that leads from this to Washington; he is to survey both sides of the broad river. Mr. W. starts in the steam boat this day for Norfolk, where he will immediately make arrangements for commencing his tour.

George Wyche, of Greenville, takes the country south of the James River, from the sea board to the Alleghany; he will survey the Roanoke, the Dan, the Meherrin, Nottoway, Black Water, Elizabeth, Nausemond and Appamattox Rivers to the points designated by the Governor's circular letter, of May, 1816; also, that part of the Alleghany and Blue Ridge Mountains, which runs from the North Carolina line to the James River.

Mr. McCreether, of Albemarle, takes all those sections of the rivers which are above the great fall road, to the Blue Ridge, inclusive of a survey of the Blue Ridge Mountains, from the James to the Potomac Rivers.

And Alexander is appointed to survey from the Blue Ridge to the Alleghany, inclusive of the Alleghany mountain, rivers, &c.

The country, west of the Alleghany, is divided into two districts, separated by the Keowah River, and Peter's Mountain. No appointment has been made to either of these districts.

Latest from Africa.

Capt. Devens, of the ship Hiram who arrived here on Monday last from Sierra Leone, we learn that a French Squadron, consisting of several frigates, with transports, &c. arrived at Oboe on the 27th of July, having on board the French Governor, and other officers; to take possession of Senegal and Goree; which places were to be delivered up to them in a few days.—The English Governor at Goree had left some time previous, and an officer of the army had been sent from Sierra Leone to Goree to give possession of that place to the French authorities.—One of the frigates belonging to the squadron, was cast away near Senegal.

St. James Yeo, in the Indomitable frigate was at Sierra Leone when Capt. D. arrived. He was bound down the coast after the Spanish and Portuguese slave vessels, and from thence to the West Indies.

The war between Negroes on the sea coast, and those of the interior, still continued when Capt. Devens sailed.

The Hiram was taken possession of within a few miles of Sierra Leone, by the boats from the British armed brig, belonging to the colony, carried into Sierra Leone, was tried, and condemned vessel and cargo, on the 27th of July last. The alleged causes for her condemnation were, that of trading at Goree for camwood, &c. and of anchoring within the waters of Sierra Leone. The judge, in his condemnation of the Hiram, observed "that the anchoring of a foreign vessel within the waters of the British possessions in Africa was a sufficient cause for capture." Capt. Devens informs, that the brig Frances, Britton, of N. York, was taken possession of on anchoring at Sierra Leone for the purpose of procuring an anchor, after several days' detention she was released, and proceeded to Goree, where she was laying on the 27th of July.

ANECDOTE.

Soon after the settlement of Virginia, captain Smith, then president of the council conducted a party of men a few miles from Jamestown, to cut timber. Among the rest were two gentlemen who had not been used to hard labor. As they were at work their fingers began to blister, and the pain of holding their axes was such as to exert an oath almost at every third blow. To prevent this, the president ordered the oaths every day to be numbered and at night condemned each man to have a can of water, for each oath, poured in his sleeve.—These washings had the desired effect; and it was afterwards rare to hear an oath in a week.

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, 200 N. STREET,
Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE STORE, No. 45 Maiden Lane, N. York.

A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended.

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases estimated desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Terebra, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small flat-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tania, or tape-worm; so called from its resemblance to a tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of children—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizenry. It is likewise the mildest and most certainly remedy known, and he restores to health and strength a great number, when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.
